A Rural Affair by Catherine Alliott is a domestic fiction. A simple story line with little or less changes in the background. I felt the title would be more appropriate if it was The Rural Gossips. The story begins in a small village cottage of Poppy Shillings, the heroine, mother of 2 kids, a young widow.

A Rural Affair by Catherine Alliott - Goodreads

"A Rural Affair tells the story of a woman whose life is turned upside down not just by the death of her spouse but by his infidelity as well, and her efforts to recover and move on. Using humor to diffuse difficult topics, Alliott takes us through Poppy's depression, rage at the other woman's bold attempt to claim "her" portion of Phil's will, anxiety and resignation at being set up by her friends and neighbors, and eventual realization that she has a life to live, still. drey's rating ...
