Fort Bragg for Phase II. The 3rd Bn, 1st SWTG (A) is responsible for all language training at the USAJFKSWCS. The Special Operations Language Training (SOLT) is primarily a performance-oriented language course. Students are trained in one of ten core languages with enduring regional application and must show proficiency in speaking, listening and reading. A student receives language training throughout the Pipeline. In Phase IV, students attend an 8 or 14 week language blitz depending upon the language they are slotted in. The general purpose of the course is to provide each student with the ability to communicate in a foreign language. For successful completion of the course, the student must achieve at least a 1/1/1 or higher on the Defense Language Proficiency

“ Phyllis, this is a spectacular and fascinating memoir. Not only did I learn so much about you, but I learned a tremendous amount about Japanese culture and customs, especially about all the fine details of Japanese domestic life. Your memory, attention to minute yet important and interesting details – especially eating, sleeping, and bathing arrangements – passages about the bombing, and shipboard accounts are riveting. This is a moving, powerful, graceful, and loving tribute to the years you spent in Japan, and more importantly, to your ability to truly make the most of it. ” - Linda Charnes, Professor of English, Indiana University started cussing using God name. Chuck, I am a Christen, and I do not like it and God does not either. He answered back Blankty blank do not care then lightning struck next to his desk, we jumped and he said I am Sorry LORD, the full story is in the book, and took many steps for him to get reborn! We went out side where it struck, and there's no sign of rain or clouds! GOD showed His Power that day, and in time couple years laterin Chuck's life to change, to reading and believing the last part of the book is 33 messages, inspired by God's words. Had many, but these, I chosen, the best ones, if the reader wants to study them.
