The 42 études ou caprices ("42 études or capriccios ") for solo violin were composed by Rodolphe Kreutzer around 1796. While Kreutzer was a prolific composer with some 50 stage works and dozens of other pieces to his credit, he is best known as a pedagogue. Together with Pierre Baillot and Pierre Rode, he was at the center of the development of the French school of violin playing around the turn of the 19th century, which defined much of the 19th-century (and hence the modern) approach to ...

Rodolphe Kreutzer was an important violinist-composer in his own day. His legacy to today's violinists is not limited to the 42 Studies (also called études " or caprices " ), but they are certainly the best remembered of his works. Few students of the violin have advanced without spending some time with Kreutzer's 42 Studies!
