2.3 How to Read Rhetorically. When we read rhetorically, we are moving beyond simply trying to comprehend what an author is saying at a basic level. Instead, one who reads rhetorically seeks to understand how meaning in a text is shaped not only by the text itself, but also the context. Rhetorically focusing on the text might include observing the following: what the author says, how he or she arranges information, the types of information that he or she includes.
