A New York Times Notable Book | Lambda Literary Award Winner | Long-listed for the PEN Open Book Award “ Charles Blow is the James Baldwin of our age. ” — Washington Blade “ [An] exquisite memoir . . . Delicately wrought and arresting. ” — New York Times Universally praised on its publication, Fire Shut Up in My Bones is a pioneering journalist ' s indelible coming-of-age tale. Charles M. Blow ' s mother was a fiercely driven woman with five sons, brass knuckles in her glove box, and a job plucking poultry at a factory near their segregated Louisiana town, where slavery's legacy felt close. When her philandering husband finally pushed her over the edge, she fired a pistol at his fleeing back, missing every shot, thanks to “ love that blurred her vision and bent the barrel. ” Charles was the baby of the family, fiercely attached to his “ do-right ” mother. Until one day that divided his life into Before and After—the day an older cousin took advantage of the young boy. The story of how Charles escaped that world to become one of America ' s most innovative and respected public figures is a stirring, redemptive journey that works its way into the deepest chambers of the heart. “ Stunning . . . Blow ' s words grab hold of you . . . [and] lead you to a place of healing. ” — Essence “ The memoir of the year. ” — A. V. Club

In T é a Mutonji ' s disarming debut story collection, a woman contemplates her Congolese traditions during a family wedding, a teenage girl looks for happiness inside a pack of cigarettes, a mother reconnects with her daughter through their shared interest in fish, and a young woman decides on shaving her head in the waiting room of an abortion clinic. These punchy, sharply observed stories blur the lines between longing and choosing, exploring the narrator ' s experience as an involuntary one. Tinged with pathos and humor, they interrogate the moments in which femininity, womanness, and identity are not only questioned but also imposed. Shut Up You ' re Pretty is the first book to be published under VS.
